

THE TIMES OF INDIA, TRICHY / MADURAI
SATURDAY, DECEMBER 2, 2023

IIM Yuva Sangam delegates interact with governor

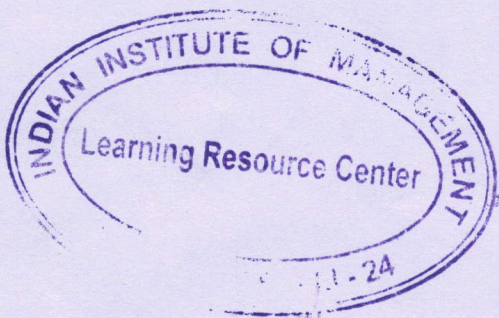

Trichy: Delegates from Rajasthan who are taking part in the Yuva Sangam Phase-III programme being held at the Indian Institute of Management (IIM-T) Trichy, interacted with the governor of Tamil Nadu, R N Ravi at the Raj Bhavan in Chennai on Friday.

The delegates shared cultural values, collaborative prospects and the pivotal role of the youth in promoting national integration. The governor, in turn, provided insights, inspiring the delegates to actively contribute to the vision of a united and harmonious India.

Answering questions from the participants, the governor mentioned that youths are the great stakeholders in politics and the country's future. He also praised the people in Tamil Nadu for their hospitality, friendly approach, simple living and overwhelming love for others; it is Bharat's DNA, he said.

The governor presented certificates and Kashi Tamil Sangamam and Saurashtra Tamil Sangamam Books (English version) to the participating students.

Pawan Kumar Singh, director of IIM-Trichy, faculty members from Indian Institute of Information Technology (IIIT), Kota, Rajasthan, and others were present.

Source : The Times of India
Date : 02/12/2023
Page No: 03

Youth interact with gov as part of Yuva Sangam

TIRUCHY: The delegation from Rajasthan visiting IIM-Tiruchy as part of the Yuva Sangam Phase-III programme had an exclusive interactive session with Governor RN Ravi at Raj Bhavan on Friday. It marked the conclusion of the 11-day expedition under the Ek Bharat Shreshtha Bharat campaign.

The delegates engaged in a dialogue with the governor, delving into shared cultural values, collaborative prospects, and the pivotal role of the youth in promoting national integration. The governor mentioned that youth are the great stakeholders in politics and the country's future. Dr Pawan Kumar Singh, director, IIM-Tiruchy was present.

Source : The New Indian Express
Date : 03/12/23
Page No : 05