"Every year, insurers lose 8-10% of their revenue to fraud, but they manage to thoroughly investigate only about 1% of fraudulent claims. This ongoing issue continues because of significant gaps in the current fraud detection and investigation practices."

Suvajit Sengupta

"It is heartening to note that IRDAI recently formed a high-power panel to suggest measures for insurance reforms. It is expected to examine various areas of the Insurance Act 1938 and recommend suitable and adequate amendments in keeping with the changing business trends and requirements of the customers."
